Re: Correction to Letter Dated March 3, 2025, Regarding Case No. 22-11068 (JTD), In Re: FTX Trading Ltd. et al.

Dear Chief Judge John T. Dorsey,

I am writing to you today on behalf of my firm, Lawjibsa, to correct a translation error in the letter(Doc No.29899) our firm submitted to the Court on March 3, 2025.

An error was identified in Section 4, "Request for Relief," on page 3 of our previous submission.

In the original document, the relevant sentence reads:

"Approve the Motion for Leave to Amend Proof of Claim No. 87144 to substitute Hyung Cheol Lim, Aimer, Inc., Blocore Pte. Ltd., Ji Woong Choi, and Mosaic Co. Ltd. as the rightful claimants."

This sentence was a result of a mistranslation. The intended meaning is as follows:

"We do not support the claims asserted by Hyung Cheol Lim and Ji Woong Choi in the Motion of Hyung Cheol Lim, Ained, Inc., Blocore Pte., Ltd., Ji Woong Choi, and Mosaic Co. Ltd. for an Order, Pursuant to Rules 3001 and 3020(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 1142(b), for Leave to Amend Proof of Claim No. 87144 to Correct Claimant's Name and Address [D.I. 29345] (the "Motion"). Rather, we maintain that they are merely among the numerous creditors of Junho Bang, comparable to Haru Invest and Delio (Traum Infotech). Accordingly, any rights they seek to assert must be exercised solely in their capacity as creditors, and they hold no priority or distinction above the other creditors of Mr. Bang."

We respectfully request that the Court consider this correction when reviewing our position on the matter. The core of our argument remains that the assets in question belong to the victims of the Haru Invest and Delio fraud, and the associated FTX claims should be adjudicated accordingly.

We apologize for any confusion this translation error may have caused. We appreciate the Court's time and consideration in this matter and remain available should further clarification be required.

Respectfully submitted,
